Housing Units In 2000

Urban Core

Number of Housing Units by Block Group

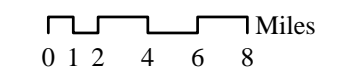

A housing unit may be a house, an apartment, a mobile home, a group of rooms, or a single room that is occupied (or, if vacant, is intended for occupancy) as separate living quarters. Separate quarter are those in which the occupants live separately from any other individuals in the building and which have direct access from outside the building or through a common hall. Both occupied and vacant housing units are included in the housing unit inventory.
