Youth Group Housing

You are invited to attend the Youth Group Housing Workshop #2 on Tuesday, September 30, from 2:00 p.m. – 3:30 p.m. at the Montgomery County Business Solutions Center. The goal of the workshop is for participants to come away with a better understanding of impacts Group Housing for Youth concentration brings to communities and proactive approaches safety and community leaders are taking to help manage youth group home conditions, while supporting some of the most vulnerable in our communities.

The intended participants include decision makers and professional staff in various occupations—such as emergency and medical personnel, law enforcement, elected officials, school administrators, and family and children service providers— in or working with first responder fields.
