

Photography: Jordan Hart

2017

INTERNATIONAL TRAILS SYMPOSIUM FREE PUBLIC EVENT

SUNDAY, MAY 7TH
12:00 - 5:00 p.m.

Dayton Convention Center (22 East 5th St, Dayton, OH 45402)
Exhibit Hall 102

FREE - Open to the Public

- Visit the Symposium exhibit hall
- Check out "indoor trails and greenways system"
- Learn about trails from all over the United States and abroad!
- See a replica of the Wright Flyer plane
- Relax in the camp area
- Browse the silent auction
- Explore the RiverMobile traveling exhibit from the University of Dayton's Rivers Institute
- Hit the indoor climbing wall and pumptrack
- Free adventure presentations
- Film Screening, 5:00 p.m.: "Trail Magic" about Ohio hiking legend Grandma Gatewood with a post-screening Q-and-A with the producer

Free presentations will also be available to the public.

For more information, contact:
Scott Myers, Free Public Event Chair
smyers@miamicountyparks.com

EXHIBITORS INVITED!

Each exhibitor spaces comes with a 6-foot table, two chairs, wastebasket, name sign, and link on the event website. Cost is $25 for nonprofits/agencies and $100 for businesses.

 Candace Mitchell, Symposium Sponsor and Exhibitor
Coordinator, American Trails
candace@americantrails.org
(530) 605-4395

Free Public Event Sponsored By:

Learn more at
AmericanTrails.org/2017